

The Royal Commission

The Royal Commission into Violence, Abuse, Neglect and Exploitation of People with Disability has started.

You can learn more about the Royal Commission on their website.

Royal Commission Website

www.disability.royalcommission.gov.au

Contact the Royal Commission

If you wish to contact the Royal Commission, there are three ways you can do this:

Email

DRcenquiries@royalcommission.gov.au

Write a letter

Post it to GPO Box 1422, Brisbane QLD 4001

Call and speak to someone who can help

1800 517 199 (9:00am to 5:00pm Monday to Friday AEDT excluding public holidays)

Make a submission to the Royal Commission

If you would like to make a submission to the Royal Commission, you can do this by using the submission form on the Royal Commission website. You can also call or send an email.

If you are seeking an advocate, we have a list on our website that may be helpful:

www.mosaic.org.au

Providing feedback to Mosaic

If something is not right for you or could be better, please tell us immediately.

You won't be treated unfavourably for doing so. We see it as our job to understand and respond to your needs.

Keep this card somewhere safe in case you want to give us feedback or complain.

Speak to your Coordinator

Email Mosaic
quality@mosaic.org.au

Mosaic Website
www.mosaic.org.au/contact/feedback
Fill out the form

Write a letter
Post it to PO Box 2125, Palmyra DC 6961

